

Army Values meets Local School's Six Pillars of Character

Fort Hunter Liggett Soldiers attended a Citizenship Luncheon at Almond Acres Charter Academy located in San Miguel, CA on January 8, 2015 to discuss citizenship and values with students.

The Luncheon is a monthly event where the school invites local business owners and community members to speak with students about the value of being a good citizen and provide examples of various available occupations in the community. The Citizenship Luncheon is based upon the Character Counts program whose framework is centered on basic values called the Six Pillars of Character: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship.

The Luncheon is a monthly event where the school invites local business owners and community members to speak with students about the value of being a good citizen and provide examples of various available occupations in the community.

Click for more photos